The Misses' Coat Section Offers Monday—

Misses' Sports Coats

Collared in Silver Raccoon

at 69.50

The smartness of the model, the material, and the fur, all assist in making this coat one of the most effective to be seen anywhere—perfectly tailored in imported all wool herringbone fleece, with large roomy pockets, raglan sleeves and mannish cuffs, topped by a large shawl collar of silver raccoon.

Any Miss will love it—it comes in new tones of brown, tan and oxford. Second Floor

Silken Underthings

make an irresistible appeal to the feminine heart—and few gifts will be more appreciated than one of these:

Crepe de Chine Pajamas

believe in "saying it with fringe," but when one considers how well they say it, it is no wonder that fringe has been used so profusely. From neck line to bottom, it travels its joyous way, so who wouldn't like it? In flesh, blue, orchid, peach and black. 11.95

A Nightgown of Flesh Tinted Satin

frankly admits that it has no use for sleeves, and seems to get along quite nicely without them. A square neck, a profusion of tucking and lace are the reasons it advances to win favor. 7.95

A Nightgown of Flesh Color Crepe de Chine decided at first to follow the preceding gown and have no sleeves, but capriciously changed its mind and put the sleeves on as an after thought, to the satisfaction of every one concerned. And the top is a delightful combination of Georgette and lace. 6.95

A Step-In Chemise of Crepe de Chine

is so beautiful in fabric that little trimming seems to be needed. So one can easily imagine how much lovelier it is when the front is tucked, and filet lace, flowers and ribbons have been added. 5.95

A Fringe-Trimmed Step-In Chemise

is quite content to let the thick fringe at top and bottom do all the work of adorning it—which was a wise decision, because the result is charming. In flesh, orchid, blue and black. 4.95
